Human Capital Management System- by SmarterHR

A permanent solution from recruiting to retirement that will make your life easier!!!!

Your workforce is your company's greatest asset and an integral part of the company's ability to earn money. They are also an expensive component of the equation which is frequently micro-managed in an effort to control costs. The success of an HR executive is determined by:

- Their ability to efficiently coordinate the multitude of functions required to manage employees

- Communicate the data with each of the departments and associated vendors.

- Protect software platforms and paper files with different security levels.

- Duplicating the same information into every platform and document.

This system is antiquated and the efforts are redundant; prohibiting you from operating at maximum efficiency and preventing you from expanding your potential.   With PPACA regulations being instituted into this web of chronological data, the dilemma gets magnified and the consequences escalate.

How do you maximize the value of your workforce while minimizing the costs?

Automation is the answer and SmarterHR is the best solution.

By combining all the Human Resource capacities into a single entry HR software program we seamlessly integrate the different applications into one universal database and allow information to be populated to all fields. The net result is efficiency, simplicity and affordability.

Execution of this strategy enables you to focus on your core competencies and be pivotal to your company's success. The SmarterHR solution allows you to proceed with confidence and ensure that you instituted a permanent foundation for success without a significant investment of time and cost.

About SmarterHR

The recent attention surrounding automation and compliance has prompted new products.

- Our software was developed to assist companies with their overall management, control and efficiency of their organization.

- It has been in operation for 14 years and is used to manage over 800,000 lives on a monthly basis.

- We have perfected knowledge-based systems and use these applications to transform HR departments into lean, streamlined teams capable of delivering outstanding services to employees.

- SmarterHR is a modular package, allowing clients to select various HR modules that will best leverage their internal resources to streamline and manage basic operations with a single application.

- SmarterHR provides an excellent fit for any size business that wants to provide all-in-one functionality to efficiently and effectively manage their organization in a paperless capacity.

- The software is supported by a team of leading experts in areas including accounting, programming and human resources which are complimented by a staff of customer service and implementation professionals dedicated to transitioning your business.